

April 2019 – Newsletter.

Membership Renewal 2019.

This is the last call for any remaining members who have not yet renewed their subscription for 2019, to do so without delay. Kindly complete the Renewal Form, including current vehicles, and return it with your subscription. It is important that the form is completed, as it acts as a check against payments and is also, more importantly, used as our Audit for the Public Liability Insurance.

Members News.

To mark our upcoming 20th anniversary, all current paid-up members will receive a specially commissioned badge and key fob. The order is being made imminently and hopefully the items will be received in time for our June meeting which will be the actual anniversary.

The raffle at our monthly March meeting, which was well attended yet again, raised £58. Rob Worthington did his inimitable job of conducting an auction of wooden items (A trinket box, a magnifying glass and two cheese boards, generously donated by Bob Stelling) which raised £30. This year alone items donated by Bob have contributed £80 towards club funds, many thanks Bob.

Club Events.

In view of our anniversary we will have a stand at Tatton that is half as big again as last year. David Kelly and Ray Yates are planning to have a bear, not a real one, on show. Ray is really keen to win an award this year and one that is better than those we've gained in previous years. Most people booked in at our March meeting but limited late entries can be accepted at tonight's April meeting. The Annual BBQ will be on Sunday September 8th, 2019. Outside caterers have been booked so keep your diaries free!

About 20 members and guests enjoyed good food and beverage at our "Hot Pot" Social event at the Bull's Head on 17th. March, 2019. A couple of old 'uns turned up on the car park and attracted a lot of attention from Joe Public, who were very appreciative. In case no-one noticed it was St. Patrick's day.

'Hot Pot' Social and ? SPRING ROAD RUN. 7th. April,2019

The last of our "winter" events will take place 7th. April, 2019, usual times, usual place AND weather and road conditions permitting, and thanks to Eddie Howell and George Timbey, we will be able to enjoy the first of our road runs for this year. Congregate at the Bull's Head for coffee, etc. from 10h30 on and wander off randomly and leisurely returning some 2 hours later. (Noon onwards for the social only.)

Other Events.

Endon Well Dressing. Monday 27th. May,2019. Harold is looking forward to seeing some new faces, on what will be a gloriously sunny day (he says so, but recent history would indicate otherwise). Congregate on the rear car park of The Plough (on the main A53 road between Stoke and Leek) from 13h00 onwards and if you could have your car description ready for him, it would be a big help for him. Big letters please in case he forgets his glasses again!!

Anyone wanting to exhibit at Smallwood Show in May please collect an entry form from David Kelly, our events officer.

Nantwich Show will be on July 31st.,2019. If you wish to exhibit contact Tony Leyland for an entry form. Reminder to anyone planning to attend this is a long day, 08h00 -18h00.

Update on Kelly's Legacy Charity Event at Loomer Road Speedway Track, Chesterton on the 1st. September, 2019.
